CHANGES IN QUARANTINE LINE FOR 1902.

B. A. I. Order No. 93 and amendments Nos. 1 to 7 thereto, dated January 10 and 11, 1902, respectively, make a few alterations in the quarantine line as shown on the map published in January, 1901. These alterations, which can be readily made by anyone having the map, are as follows:

In California: San Benito County is taken out of the quarantined district, the line following its western, southern, and eastern boundaries.

In Oklahoma: The parts of the counties of Oklahoma, Logan, Payne, and Noble, and of the Ponca, Otoe, and Missouri Indian reservations, lying west of the A. T. & S. F. Railway, are taken out of the quarantined district, the line following the railway from the southern border of Kay County to the northern border of Cleveland County; thence west to the northwestern corner of Cleveland County.

In Tennessee: Tipton and White counties are taken out of the quarantined district, the line following the western, southern, and eastern boundaries of Tipton County and the southern boundary of White County. The parts of Carroll and Benton counties lying east and south of the N. C. & St. L. Railway are placed in the quarantined district, the line following the railway from the northern border of Henderson County to the eastern border of Benton County; thence south to the southeastern corner of Benton County.

Special quarantine is placed upon certain counties as follows:

In Texas: Childress, Cottle, Hardeman, Foard, Wilbarger, King, Knox, Haskell, Stonewall, Jones, Fisher, Scurry, Garza, Borden, Howard, Mitchell, Glasscock, Sterling, Irion, West Tom Green, Upton, Crane, Throckmorton, Baylor, and part of Pecos.

In Oklahoma: Greer.

In North Carolina: Surry, Wilkes, Caldwell, Burke, McDowell, and part of Henderson.

In Virginia: Nelson, Albemarle, Louisa, Fluvanna, Goochland, and Henrico.
